The registration fee includes four paper sessions, an exhibition of Bachiana at the Bach-Archiv Leipzig, transportation to and from Naumburg, a demonstration and recital on the 1746 Hildebrandt organ in St. Wenceslaus Church and a performance of two Bach cantatas by Music Antiqua Köln followed by a wine tasting and dinner on Thursday, May 11, a reception and banquet on Friday May 12, a Bach cantata service at St. Thomas Church in Leipzig, and transportation to and from Störmthal and a recital on the 1723 Hildebrandt organ on Saturday, May 13.

TRANSPORTATION

Leipzig is accessible by air, train or car. To get to Leipzig Center from the Leipzig Airport you can either take the local commuter train ("S-Bahn") which runs every half hour at 22 and 52 after the hour and costs 3.40 Euro each way. The ride takes about 15 minutes. Occasionally there are additional express trains ("IC" or "ICE") which are slightly faster, but cost 6.00 Euro. You can also take a taxi; the fare is usually 30-35 Euro.
